

Midwest Unitarian Universalist Summer Assembly

July 3– 7, 2024. Bloomington, Indiana

Pre-Camp Muse

The Unitarian Universalist Church of Bloomington welcomes MUUSA this year!

The Unitarian Universalist Church of Bloomington, Indiana, (UUCB) is excited to be hosting MUUSA 2024! We are so glad you have chosen to make the journey to be together for camp. We hope many of you will stay for the UUCB Sunday worship (10:15-11:15 am) to meet members of our congregation and hear Reverend Misha and Pam and the Awesome Choir one more time.

Getting Ready for Camp!

Next week is practically here!

This Muse is filled with lots of information to help get you ready for the week and to help you navigate the week during camp.

Here is the really important stuff:
Contact the MUUSA Registrar registrar@muusa.org before camp starts if you are staying at McNutt and need a parking pass or mini fridge. This will greatly speed up the registration process upon arrival.

Alcohol is not allowed in the dorms at any time. This is a strict rule of the University.

Tap cards (needed to get into the dorm for lodging, meals, programs) have a $20 replacement fee if lost.

Adults that are swimming any days other than the 4th of July will need to pay John Sandman $4.00 for each visit. More information here (Swimming is included during camp for youth).

If you are staying at the dorm, check in first at UUCB before heading to the dorm to check in there.

In this Muse you will find:

Registration/July 3rd Information

2:00-5:00-Registration- Fellowship Hall- Start Here!

Registration is at the Unitarian Universalist Church of Bloomington (UUCB). UUCB is located at the corner of N. Fee Lane and SR 45/46. The address is 2120 N. Fee Lane, Bloomington, IN 47408.

Other things to do at registration:

Get more information on children's and youth programs

Sign up for workshops that still have openings

Pick up t-shirts (if you ordered from Bonfire store)

Ask questions about camp life

Reconnect with old friends and meet new friends (gathering space is available in the foyer)

Find your lodging and take time to get settled as desired.

If you are staying in the dorm, check in at UUCB before going to the dorm. You can find more information about the dorm here (or scroll down to where it says Dorm Information below).

If you are only registered to eat in the dorm and/or need access to a wing of the dorm (to join a program, etc.), you will still need to get a tap card and lanyard from McNutt at check-in).

If you need a ride from UUCB to the dorm during registration, Guy Loftman is available to help shuttle people back and forth.

5:00-7:00 Food Trucks in parking lot

You are welcome to stay after Check-in, or come back after finding your lodging, to share dinner with fellow MUUSAns! Trucks will offer a wide range of options for all tastes and budgets. Campers are responsible for purchasing their own food from the food trucks.

7:00-8:00-Opening Celebration-Meeting Hall:

Join us for an official welcome to MUUSA and help us celebrate being together!

8:00-9:30-Welcome Party!-Fellowship Hall

Following the Opening Celebration, it is time to be social! Come join us for some great music, dancing, conversation and general merriment.

9:30-11:00-Unprogrammed gathering time- Fellowship Hall

This is a time to gather for socializing and games of all sorts.

11:00 and later

Everyone is expected to leave the church by 11:00 each night. Thank you for being respectful to our hosts!

Getting Around/Parking

Transportation

People staying at McNutt Dorm or hotels can walk, drive, carpool, Uber, or Lyft to UUCB and other activity locations.

Public Transportation

Bloomington has Uber and Lyft service, but no public transportation to the church.

The city bus has a stop about 5 blocks from the church (in front of Briscoe Quad just north of McNutt Quad) which takes you downtown to excellent local restaurants and watering holes, and the beautiful old portion of the IU campus. Buses run about every 15 minutes, and cost $1.00 per ride. There will be no buses on the 4th of July. The last bus runs at 10:10 p.m. on Wednesday and Friday and at 5:50 p.m. on Saturday.

Parking

UUCB has 85 parking spaces (including 6 designated as handicap access).

Across N. Fee Lane are about 60 more spaces (near the IU Softball stadium).

Diagonally across the 46 Bypass is an old church (now owned by IU) and parking is available there.

About 30 spaces can usually be found one-half block south of UUCB on David Baker Avenue.

People who are staying at McNutt Dorm may park there free of charge, but will need a parking pass. Please contact the MUUSA Registrar (registrar@muusa.org) if you need a parking pass at the dorm (preferably before camp).

Hundreds of spaces are located among athletic facilities between McNutt dorm and UUCB.

IU will not enforce posted parking restrictions during the week of camp for the lots nearest the church and the lots at the athletic facilities.

The Blue Lot just north of McNutt (across the street) is free and recommended for those coming only to eat.

Dorm Information (McNutt)

McNutt Dorm is located at 1101 N Fee Ln.

Registration

Dorm check in is open from 2-5:30 on Wednesday, July 3rd. (Late arrival will be supported.) Please check in for MUUSA at UUCB before heading to the dorm to check in, get your card, drop stuff off — and then come back to UUCB for food trucks and the opening celebration!

Tap Cards & Lanyard

Your card will register what you have access to in McNutt (cafeteria only; wing of the dorm floors/your room) depending on your registration. Tap cards will only open the wing of the dorm and the room you are residing in.

Rooms lock as the door closes: make sure you always take your card with you (even to the bathroom) as you will need it to get back into your dorm room.

Meyer and Burt program counselors will have access to both wings for their programs. Counselors will not be able to open rooms for others, but in case of need, must accompany minor campers to the front desk to ask for assistance in letting folks back in.

Lost Cards

Lost cards are charged a $20 fee for replacement - please keep a tight eye on yours!!

Linens and Furniture Arrangement

2 sheets, a pillowcase, and 2 towels will be provided. Pillows and blankets are available upon request at no additional charge. (Bring your own pillow and blankets if you can or if you are picky!) Each room has two twin XL beds, one higher (~42") and one lower (~20"), out of necessity for furniture arrangement. Furniture may not be moved or removed.

Wi-fi/Air Conditioning/Mini Fridges

McNutt has free wi-fi and is air conditioned. The room temperature is preset to 74-78 degrees Fahrenheit. You are welcome to pack a fan for an added breeze! Some mini-fridges are available. Please contact the MUUSA Registrar (registrar@muusa.org) if you need one in your room — IU needs to know in advance.

Room assignments

Most rooms have a capacity of two, and our MUUSA Registrar will be making the roommate assignments. If you have roommate preferences not listed at registration, please contact the MUUSA Registrar (registrar@muusa.org) ASAP as the information will be sent to IU within days. Some single rooms will be available.

Parking at McNutt

The Blue Lot just north of McNutt (across the street) is free and recommended for those coming only to eat. Please contact the MUUSA Registrar (registrar@muusa.org) if you need a parking pass at the dorm, preferably before the start of camp.

There will not be laundry facilities available at the dorm.

No Alcohol Note: no alcohol is allowed in the dorms at any time. This is a strict rule of the University.

Food and Drink

Lunches

Thursday through Saturday lunch will be served at UUCB for campers who did not choose lunch at the dorm. Options will be available for omnivores, vegetarians, vegans, and gluten-free MUUSAns. Tentative menus include: wrap sandwiches; local tamales, beans and rice, quesadillas; and local pizza. Each day we will also offer a green salad, crudites, soup, fresh fruit, and kid-friendly options.

July 4th dinner at UUCB

All campers are invited to July 4th dinner at UUCB. We will offer pulled chicken and pulled pork sandwiches, vegan sloppy joes, potato salad, baked beans, coleslaw, and lots of pie!

If you would like to contribute a pie, please let Ruellen Fessenbecker know (rfessenb@indiana.edu).

Beverages

Coffee and tea will be available every morning before the Morning Celebration. Campers are invited to come early to share in what some people call “UU communion.”

Please bring your own water bottle to stay hydrated during the day and for meals. This environmentally friendly practice will cut down on the dishwashing chores and energy usage. There is a bottle-filling station at the drinking fountain just inside the Courtyard door of the church.

Alcohol

Every place in camp is a public area with underage people. Be mindful of how you use alcohol so that we are able to keep everyone safe. You are welcome to bring your own beverage, alcohol or non, to the Speakeasy, to the July 4th dinner, and to Coffee House.

Alcohol is strictly prohibited in the dorms- no exceptions

Children/Youth/Young Adult Programs

Children's Program/Cratty

The children's program will be participating in a variety of indoor and outdoor activities. Every day expect that we will be going to the IU swimming pool or have water activities outside at the church. We will walk to Griffy Lake Nature Preserve and other nearby nature attractions.

At registration, please stop by the children's program table to get a schedule and any additional relevant information for the week.

Each day pack a tote or backpack that has all your child's belongings labeled with their name. Some things to pack:

- Walking shoes
- Swim suit
- Reusable water bottle
- Beach towel
- Sunscreen
- Sunglasses (optional)
- Bug repellent (optional)

Jr. High Program

Also known as "Meyer" (for those entering 7th - 9th grades)

In Meyer, junior highers will all stay in the dorm with their counselors who will create a safe place for sharing, learning their own boundaries, and building a fantastic community. All Meyer activities are designed to support emotional and spiritual growth, and empower junior high youth. Meyerites will be staying at McNutt Complex and will be in youth programming over the course of the week. During registration, Meyerites will first check in at UUCB and then check in at the dorm to join the Meyer program at that time.

2 sheets, a pillowcase, and 2 towels will be provided by the university. Pillows and blankets are available upon request at no additional charge. (Bring your own pillow and blankets if you can or if you are picky!)

All youth should make sure to pack:

Shoes and clothes you can run in
Swimsuit and beach towel
Toiletries
Reusable Water Bottle
Anything you would like to bring for the Talent / No Talent Show

If you have any questions please email Meyer Co-Directors, Ben (benjkrueger@gmail.com) and Trevor (trevorsmith7224@gmail.com).

Also known as “Burt” (for those entering 10th - 12th grades)

In our Sr. High program, which we call “Burt,” we create a community where we love and support everyone no matter what, where we become courageous and responsible, discover ourselves, make life-long friends, and have a ton of fun.

Our “Burtoid” campers will stay together at McNutt Complex and participate in workshops, worship, games, arts and crafts, a talent show, music sharing, and other yearly traditions.

2 sheets, a pillowcase, and 2 towels will be provided by the university. Pillows and blankets are available upon request at no additional charge. (Bring your own pillow and blankets if you can or if you are picky!)

All youth should make sure to pack:

Shoes and clothes you can run in

Toiletries

Reusable Water Bottle

Swimsuit and beach towel

Anything you would like to bring for the Talent / No Talent Show

Be on the lookout for a detailed pre-camp email coming soon!

For more information, contact Margaret Mitchell at coronamadonna@gmail.com

Young Adult Program

The Young Adult program (YAs) offers attendees in the age range of 18-35 a unique and flexible sense of community. YAs have the full freedom to take part in any of the adult programming offered, but can also choose to take part in YA specific activities and spaces!

During MUUSA, YAs will be staying in the McNutt Complex. We hope to retain a great deal of our unique traditions and have a jolly good time as we transition to a new location for this year!

If you are a YA that is not staying in the dorm, you will need to go to McNutt during registration to pick up your tap card and lanyard.

Are you a YA who has not been receiving MUUSA info? Please contact Grant Lyon, grantlyonhasanemail@gmail.com or Meredith Enersen, meremaren@gmail.com to be added to the mailing list so that you can receive info about what to bring to Bloomington.

General Camp Information

Theme Speaker

We welcome back Rev. Misha Sanders for 2024. Rev. Misha Sanders (she/her/hers) is feeling very blessed to be the Senior Minister at Northwest Unitarian Universalist Congregation in beautiful Sandy Springs, Georgia. She is a fiery preacher of the good news of Unitarian Universalism, and believes that the whole world is built and rebuilt by the stories we tell ourselves and each other.

Morning Celebration

Celebrate being together each day at our morning worship service led by Rev. Misha Sanders, with music being provided by the Awesome Choir. Children's programming begins after the Story for All Ages concludes during the service. Morning celebration will take place in the meeting room at UUCB.

Thursday-Saturday 8:45-9:30 am
UUCB Sunday worship-10:15-11:15 am

Coffee House

Come share your talents with the rest of camp at our nightly open-mic! All manner of talents are welcome! If you have questions or would like to sign up, email Meredith Enersen at meremaren@gmail.com

Google Camp Photo Album

Add photos to the google album throughout the week! Here is the link to the google album:
<https://photos.app.goo.gl/FYVxG41kN3ZcNpDs6>

IU Pool Admission

IU pool admission rate is $4.00 per day for adult campers on all days except for the 4th of July. If you go on other days, you can get into the pool with your MUUSA wristband, but you will need to pay John Sandman $4.00 for each visit that you make. Cash, Paypal (muusatreasurer@gmail.com) or Venmo (John-sandman last 4 digits are 3817) accepted.

Swimming is included during camp for youth. They do not need to pay for swimming during camp.

Camp Service Project

Traditionally, MUUSA contributes to a service project at camp. This year, instead of building or painting something, we will be demolishing two old sheds on the UUCB property. This will help make way for a new shed to be installed later in the summer. Work sessions will be scheduled on Friday and Saturday afternoons (dependent on the weather). All are welcome; tools and skills are NOT required.

Things to Bring

Games

Instruments for Last Resort String Band or Coffee House

Coffee Mug

Water Bottle

Swimsuit/Sunscreen/Hat

Beach towel

Snacks

Beverages (reminder that there is no alcohol allowed in the dorms at any time)

Pie for dinner on the 4th (If you would like to contribute a pie, please let Ruellen Fessenbecker know rfessenb@indiana.edu).

Comfortable shoes for walking

Umbrella/raincoat

Insect repellent for outdoor activities

For Staying in the Dorm:

Shower shoes/caddy (communal bathrooms and showers)

Fan (rooms are set between 74 and 78 degrees)

2 sheets, a pillowcase, and 2 towels will be provided by the university. Pillows and blankets are available upon request at no additional charge. (If you prefer to bring your own linens, the beds use Twin XL sheets)

Camp Lingo Guide

APC: The Adult Programming Committee of the Planning Council; organizes all adult activities and workshops; members get a lot of steps every day; rumored to have Superpowers.

BLUUSA: The on-site planning team that has been hard at work for months to host MUUSA this year at UUCB. Please thank them for all the hours that they have put in to make MUUSA special this year! We could not have done this without them!

Burt: The name of the High School Youth Group—a name honored since MUUSA's roots at Lake Geneva Summer Assembly; also Burtoid: a member of Burt, who will be happy, but sleep-deprived and may or may not acknowledge a parent or sit with you at mealtimes.

Choir aka Awesome Choir: A Workshop and the choir for the week; sings for Morning Celebration; led by the Awesome Pam Blevins-Hinkle, accompanied by the Awesome Holling Smith-Borne.

Finding Tiny Treasures: Mysterious campers hide tiny treasures around camp.

Meyer: The name for the Junior High School group—name honored since MUUSA's roots at Lake Geneva Summer Assembly; also, Meyerite—a teen affiliated with Meyer. See “Burt” above for typical behavior.

MUSE: Newsletter with MUUSA info. This year, we just have one - this Pre-Camp Muse.

MUUSA Toes: Some campers like to arrive at camp after group pedicures; typically each toe is painted a different color. See photos posted on Facebook the day before camp!

Napping Workshop aka Napshop: Spontaneous, self-led, and highly recommended.

Omsbuddy: Nickname for Ombudsman, a position of the Planning Council who makes sure camp rules are respected; mediates if needed; all around sensible person.

PC: Planning Council—Made up of the APC, plus the Omsbuddy, Treasurer, Registrar, Secretary, Children's Program, Burt, and Meyer leaders; also rumored to have superpowers. Please thank them for all they do, and feel free to ask them any questions you wish.

Proch: A long time ago, a hard-working newsletter editor spelled “porch” wrong. Proch is a reference to that micro-blunder and refers to a Porch Party and/or a gathering of MUUSAns. Example: “Come to our Proch.”

“See you next week”: MUUSAns don't say “goodbye” at the end of a wonderful week (or weekend) —we say “See you next week.” We say it all year long. Again and again. Hilarity ensues when camp really is only one week away.

The Tent: Outside at UUCB Church this year. Stop by to see what fun activity might be Happening.

Vespers: A spiritual end to the day, after dinner, led by campers.

YAs, YYAs: Young Adults (21-35), and Young, Young Adults (18-20) who coordinate their own mysterious programming but occasionally make appearances at adult workshops and all-camp events.

Things to Do Near Bloomington

While in Bloomington we recommend many activities close to UUCB or just a short drive away.

Nearby:

- Griffy Lake Nature Preserve. The preserve boasts miles of newly redesigned hiking trails which follow the contours of Griffy Lake. Early morning and evening walks are particularly beautiful. Trail heads can be found about 5 blocks from UUCB (right by Jane McLeod and Steve Krahne's house!)
- Griffy Lake. Griffy Lake is similar, in many ways, to Sunnen Lake at Trout Lodge. Canoes, paddleboards, etc. can be reserved and rented. There is also a put-in for those with their own watercraft and a recently renovated fishing pier. (Swimming is not allowed.)
- Biking. Bloomington Indiana and Monroe County are famous for biking. A rolling terrain, many designated bike trails, and lovely scenery make Bloomington a safe and interesting environment for bikers. More information about bike routes can be found at:
<https://bloomington.in.gov/transportation/bike/map>.
- Indiana University is often cited as the most beautiful college campus in the United States. The campus is about 10 blocks from UUCB, and about 5 blocks from McNutt Dorm. Athletic facilities, such as the football stadium and field houses, are basically across the street from UUCB. Other attractions include the IU Art Museum, Lilly Library, Carillon, Musical Arts Center, and many more. More information can be found at:
<http://www.iub.edu>.
- Many recreational facilities are nearby and available to MUUSA campers (some for a fee), such as the IU outdoor swimming pool and The Pfau Course with 18-hole golf. You are welcome to use any of the tennis and pickleball courts on campus for no fee, except those closed for construction. Bring your own equipment.. You can read about Bloomington's unique attractions at <https://www.visitbloomington.com>.
- Bloomington is famous for its many ethnic restaurants. Indian, Afghani, Turkish, Tibetan, etc. are just a few. Bloomington also boasts 3 brew-pubs, including the home of the national brand, Upland Brewing.

A short drive away:

- Brown County State Park is often rated one of the most beautiful State parks in the Midwest. It is about a 20 minute drive from Bloomington. Overnight camping is available. For more information:
<https://www.in.gov/dnr/state-parks/parks-lakes/brown-county-state-park/>
- Lake Monroe is an enormous lake with beaches, watercraft rentals and camping areas. More information can be found at: <https://www.visitbloomington.com/things-to-do/lakes/monroe-lake/>
- Nashville, Indiana is a nearby artist's enclave which boasts dozens of small artist boutiques, workshops and studios as well as several small shops, restaurants and pubs. More information can be found at:
<https://www.browncounty.com/>
